SENATE TO DECIDE SHORT LOAN PLAN Boston Man Pays Fines but

House Passes Measure for $7,-000,000,000 Issue as Glass Dictated.

TWO CALLS MAY BE MADE

War Finance Corporation Is Attacked for Supplying "Foreign Coffers."

Special Despatch to Tan Bun, WASHINGTON, Feb. 26 .- The House out squarely up to the Senate to-day etion on the bill authorizing the issuance of $7,000,000,000 in short term notes in place of the longer term bonds previously authorized in the course of One announced a member of her family the war. The vote on the passage of by her five children. Ten suffragists Glass had practically dictated was 340 syes to 3 noes, with only Representatives Curry (Cal.) and La Foliette (Wis.), Republicans, and London (N. Y.), So-Representative Kitchin (N. C.), Demoeratic floor leader and chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, stated that while the Secretary of the Treasury might limit the sale of the short time provided also that the Senate passes the bill, the issue of the remainder of the authorization in all likelihood would be ressary before the ensuing fiscal year as well under way.

Recommittal Is Defeated.

The passage of the bill by the House ollowed an unsuccessful effort by Repsentative Moore (Pa), Republican, to e the measure recommitted to conferinferees to demand the elimination of Corporation a new lease of life.

Moore said that to extend the would be a dangerous proceeding." He on "threatened to become a monstrosit were to be permitted to conindefinitely. He warned of the ers of further foreign loans" and hat if the War Finance Corporation was "to continue the practice of pouring refused to authorize additional ed the party whip wielded by Majortry Leader Kitchin to force the bill through in the form in which it had been submitted by the Treasury Depart-

Kitchin Makes Answer.

"We are only asking that the powers of the War Finance Corporation be ex-tended for another year." Kitchin said. By that time a Republican Congress on a Republican Congress to determine such financial questions. Surely the gentleman from Pennsylvania has every onfidence in the ability of a Republicar short, sharp debate ended by a motion to recommit the bill beng defeated 240 to 111. Opposition to the bill then melted which the Democratic majority is planalex to shove it through with the same speed as it encountered in the House despite the legislative jam.

PRESIDENT HOLDS UP HOG PRICE DECISION He Has Question of Policy The naval appropriation was ordered favorably reported by the Senate Naval Under Advisement.

Washington, Feb. 28.—Decision as to econtinuance of the Food Administra-ous minimum hog price policy after midthe Friday, expected to-day by Frank S. der, chief of the meat division, will be made until President Wilson has elermined the question of embargoes effecting neutrals and other countries. This became known to-night after Food Administration officials had conferred with the War Trade Board and or with President Wilson at the Foof Administration officials explained force would be no further need of main-laining a minimum price if the world markets could be opened up to free trad-ing in pork. This question was dis-cussed at the "War Cabinet" meeting and it was said the President would with other phases of the 250,000 IN SECRET SERVICE.

Bureau Received More Than 1,500 Complaints Daily, ione than 1,500 complaints a day and counted up and inducted into service 10,000 slackers and deserters. frees facts became known through an iress by John Lord O'Brien, Assistant orney-General, at the presentation an automobile to A. Bruce Bielassi, of the bureau during the war, by bureau's employees.

LABOR BACKS DAYLIGHT LAW. Act Reduced Number of Accidents, for repeal of the act has attached by the Senate Agriculture mittee as a rider to the annual agri-

BAKER ASKS $829,327,200.

Secretary Says Money Is Needed to Feed Army of A. E. F.

SHINGTON, Feb. 26 .- Congress was ed to-day by Secretary Baker for a y for the subsistence of the army appropriation the subsistence of the army as during the remainder of the ent fiscal year. The law recently war appropriations cancelled builing bill," Mr. Baker wrote.

SUFFS, SCREAMNG AND KICKING, FREED

Women Object to Liberty.

Bosron, Feb. 26 .- Three of the sufragists who were sent to jail because they refused to pay fines imposed as a leader, Senator Lodge (Masa.), has asresult of a demonstration while President wilson was here Monday were forcibly primary duty of the Peace Conference. ejected from the jail to-night after E. H. | Senator Cummins said : Howe, who is unknown to the women, had paid their fines of $5 each. The settlement of the terms of peace which injunction could be brought to restrain the Sheriff from accepting payment of their fines without their consent.

Fines were paid also for two others.

OF U. S. LOAN DELAY

Continued from First Page.

dent supporters of the President's programme of internationalism that failure to provide for issuing bonds or notes within two months will affect American business materially. Secretary Glass has repeatedly laid emphasis upon the absolute necessity of getting the cam-paign for the Victory Loan under way not later than April 21.

The net result of the President's advent on American soil thus far has been that instead of untangling the knots into which Congress, under the leadership in on American soil thus far has been that instead of untangling the knots into which Congress, under the leadership in both houses of adherents of his own political faith, has enmeshed the nation's business, it has produced a snarl of national and international affairs which cannot possibly be straightened out.

Senator Cummins stated it to be his the peace conference at Paris concludes cannot possibly be straightened out by helief that In the face of this situation, with possibilities of disaster patent, the Prest-

FEDERAL SALARIES MEASURE PASSED

Congress Approves Measures Expending $125,000,000.

a total appropriation of $125,000,000. while committees of the House and the Senate reported favorably on several other important measures, chief of which was the naval appropriation bill, with its three year building programme and its $729,000,000 appropriation. The bills passed were the $93,000,000 legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bill. which provides for the salaries of most Federal officers, with an increase of $240 rearly for Government employees, and the $32,000,000 rivers and harbors appriation bill, providing for seventy-right to oppose a provision empowering the President to suspend the building programme at his discretion. This pro-vision was retained in the bill by a strict written into the House bill with a view President had again urged members of Congress to incorporate this provision into the bill.

Increases Navy to 250,000.

The bill as agreed upon by the Senate compact should contain a programme of disarrament and, after all, indiarrament attempts of the navy was increased from the House bill. The permanent extrempts of the navy was increased from the House bill. The permanent attempts of the navy was increased from the House bill. The permanent attempts of the navy was increased from the House bill. The permanent and after all, indiarrament and after all, or the leaves of the matrix of the leavest of the Navy Department, and that of the Marine Corps from 17,000 to 28,000. This increase in personnel was required. Senator of the navy was increased from the House bill. The permanent and setting of the modern that of the distance of the theory that the well being and development of such peoples form a favore of the modern that of the theory that the well being and development of such peoples form a favore of the modern throughtful statesman." Said Senator of the distinct world.

"No thoughtful man, certainly no thoughtful statesman." Said Senator own, "acquainted with the fallibility of other throughtful statesman." Said Senator own, "acquainted with the fallibility of other throughtful statesman." Said Senator own, "acquainted with the fallibility of other throughtful statesman." Said Senator own, "acquainted with the fallibility of them the theory that the well being and development of such peoples form a favore such peop the present war pay of enlisted men of the navy and Marine Corpa. To develop the naval air service the

Complaints Daily,

Washington, Feb. 26.—The American

Ecret service during the war was made it of more than 250,000 men, including members of volunteer auxiliary agencles such as the American Protective League. The Bureau of Investigation of the Department of Justice received The Senate was informed by Secretary more than 1,500 complaints a day and

To develop the naval air service the committee the receased the believe the citizens of American would go. He proceeded:
"I cannot and will not believe that Americana with red blood in their veine, with fervid longing for peace in their hearts, who have pride in the history of their country and who love the insituations with which the honorable distinction of the United States throughout

The Senate Fublic Lands Committee putes between national structure and full to appropriate $100,000,000 to make reclaimed public lands available for settlement by discharged soldiers and sallors, after Secretary Lane had said it was a great reconstruction measure. A similar bill has been reported to the House. By means of this measure Secretary Lane measure and the second to th Says Frank Morrison.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Prediction of loaders that a national daylight loaders would reduce the number industrial accidents was borne out in last year, said Frank Morrison, sector of the American Federation of the measure in a compensation of the territorial integration of the territorial integrat tions.

The deadlock between the House and making treaties with other nations is one of these attributes; and moreover the Senate over the bill legalizing informal war contracts was broken to-day with a compromise agreement. This limits the amendment providing for settlement of "Alliances, offensive and defensive."

compromise agreement. This limits the amendment providing for settlement of claims growing out of the atimulation of mineral production to manganese, chrome, pyrites and tin tungsten. Mineral claims adjusted by the Secretary of the Interior are to be limited to $8,500,000. The bulk of the contracts which will be validated by the bill were made by the War Department, and total more than $2,500,000,000.

Teliowsione Park to Be Larger.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Increase by to the article in a specifically recognized in the Constitution.

"Alliances, offensive and defensive, nations acted together, and its results will be leard only if they continue to at together. The forces making for our own history I have no doubt of our constitutional authority to enter into a treaty of that kind.

"I have some doubt with regard to our power to enter into the treaty proposed in the Paris constitution, a doubt arising from the universality and duration of the obligation we are asked to assume; but I do not rest any objection

CUMMINS SEES BIG DANGER IN LEAGUE

Continued from First Page.

State law provides that prisoners must be released immediately after fines are paid.

When Sheriff Kelliher announced that their fines had been paid they declared they would not leave their cells. Two deputies were summoned for each suffragiet and the women were carried out, struggling and acreaming, and server in the struggling and acreaming, and server in the settlement of the terms of peace which are to be imposed upon Germany. It is my opinion that we should first dispose of Germany and that immediately thereafter the Peace Conference now assembled in Paris should make a determined effort for peace among all nations and out.

out, struggling and screaming, and placed upon the sidewalk.

The three women announced they would picket the jall to-morrow and Teutonic empires had been effected to would consult an attorney to see if an enter into the consideration of some conference as the foundation of such a world pact. "With respect to the proposed constitution of the league." continued Senator Cummins, "to which President Wilson has explicitly given his approval, which tunity to express in a definite way my approval not only of the purpose in view

The President has started the ball rolling, and Republicans, even though their intentions are of the best, feel that they cannot stop it. In his determination to postpone calling a special session of Congress the President, unless all signs fall, will have to face the certainty of providing for financing the Government without the note issue on which he has counted.

It is conceded even by the most ardent supporters of the President's product of the president's product of the president's product of the supporters of the President's product of the president of the providing for financing the Government without the note issue on which he has counted.

It is conceded even by the most ardent supporters of the President's product of the president's product of the president's product of the president's product of the president and overturn the institutions upon which the product of the president and parts of articles in the proposed the whole character of our Government and overturn the institutions upon which calling the product of the president's product of the president's product of the president's product of the president and parts of articles in the proposed the providing for financing the Government without the note issue on which he has counted.

It is conceded even by the most ardent of our Government and overturn the institutions upon which the providing for financing the Government and overturn the institutions upon which the providing for financing the financing the first half of the providing for financing th

Dooms Constitutional Powers.

"There are provisions in it which no only degrade the spirit of our people but ico was defensible or indefensible; the put it beyond the power of the republic decree of civilization demanded this terto 'establish justice, insure domestic ritory for the republic. Let the men

Senator Cummins stated it to be his belief that the American people hoped that the permanency of peace of the world would be a reward of the sacrision and I fervently hope that when the world would be a reward of the sacry sion and I lervelity requires changes in to accept the suggestions that the establishment of universal peace could mean the dethronement of Americanism. He false to the interest of mankind if I take to the interest of mankind if I articles which, as I look at the subject, tend in the right direction. I will be better understood if I trace the outlines of the compact which I think ought to emerge from the struggle just closed.

Arbitration or Adjudiention.

"First-We ought to agree and all ticiable disputes—and by justiciable dis-putes I mean those issues which can be determined by the application of recog-nized law to establish facts—should be nized law to establish facts—should be settled either by arbitration or adjudication; and we ought to agree and all other nations ought to agree without equivocation or reserve that we and they will abide by and perform the award of judgment.

"Second—We ought to agree and all other nations ought to agree that with respect to other international disputes."

Award of judgment.

"Second—We ought to agree and all other international disputes war shall not be made until some personnel to the league is a mineration of the league is a under the constitution that of budy that would combine the efallight of the world. Combine the efallight of the world. Combine the efallight of the mark happen under in suddence of the world. Upon such questions there should be no award, no judgment and the sanction should be constituted system of international body in which expresented shall have had a fair opportunity to discuss and consider, At—a look should be cur importunity to discuss and consider, At—a look should be cur importunity to discuss and consider, At—a look should be cure in the enest conscience of the world. Upon such questions there should be no award, no judgment and the sanction should be confined to the moral influences which it may be a substitute of the moral influences which it was a minute of the sanction should be confined to the moral influences which it was a possession and administer the location and this shouled be cure in months. The construction and this should be cur importunity to discuss and consider, At—a location and this should be cur importunity to discuss and consider, At—a location and this should be cure in most international body in which expressed to the House Judgled to the world. Washington, Feb. 26.—Legislation the world will try the experiment plants to eligible furnished by law.

"This article is not only bad in and of use possession will always the civil was freed by the civil some decivity than he can defer the deficient plants. Washington, Feb. 26.—Legislation. Washington, Feb. 26.—Legislation which are commission, except attentions on a flief they be found to world will try the experiment, and from the house to-disting the most distances. The cost like the total value of a treat the total value of a treat the total value of the minority of its like the total value of the manutary and the during the period of national readily treats $20, to submit a proper controversy to judgment or refuse to perform the judgment when rendered or refuse to delay war until the combined Powers have an opportunity to consider the subject in all its aspects I am willing to agree that contracted shall be the penalty inflicted upon the offending nation.

he believed that in these four paragraphs he had stated the aims of the American people. Beyond that, he said, he did not

The Senate Public Lands Committee putes between nations but which af-eported favorably the bill to appropri- firmatively destroy the national etrucadministration of the measure in a commission composed of the Secretaries of War. Interior and Agriculture, who will be empowered to grant fifty year permits for the use of water power, with mits for the use of water power, with Within its sphere our Government has alterbutes of sovereignty and all the attributes of sovereignty and

To blugations of large amounts have a developed, the existence of which not known at the time of the relief bill," Mr. Baker wrote.

I cliewstone Park to Be Larger.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Increase by to the article upon our lack of power to enter into the obligation."

The Senator's condemnation of the Senator's condemnation of the Senate Public Lands Committee, which ordered reported the House bill to add to it," said he, "because it is the most lang bill," Mr. Baker wrote.

nineteenth century when Texas, New Mexico, Arizona and California became parts of the United States.

"It matters not whether the Texan war was justifiable or unjustifiable; it matters not whether our war with Mexsion and I fervently hope that when the welfare of humanity requires changes in should vote to ratify a treaty which obligated my country, no matter what the circumstances or conditions may be, to send our men to death on the battlefield in any and every land to maintain the boundaries which are now established. I know and you all know that we would not fulfil any such obligation and if we were to enter into it we would be guilty worse than punic faith."

Attacks Article on Mandatories. Senator Cummins then passed to Artiele XIX providing for the government by mandatories of the partially civilized and partially developed areas of the of the Turkish empire until the people who live in this uncertain territory are

Beyond President's Power.

Beyond President's Power.

"It does not require a man trained in the study of the law to determine instantly that the people of the United States never gave to the President or States never gave to the President or this thing. There is not a semblance of power in the Constitution to perform such an act, and the proposal is more insuch an act, and the proposal is all more to acquire to enact the coverant, saying "Work be to those blind statesmen who fall unto to acquire to enact the coverant, and the proposal is all unto tended to warm omniously against fallure to enact the case who is all unto tende mind."

In the conclusion of his speech Sena-tor Cummins made a single reference to ex-President Taft. In it he accused Mr. Taft of lack of fairness and candor, saying "A day or two ago I read the following statement issued by a distinguished company of gentlemen headed by Mr. Taft as they toured the ountry:

"The war against military autocracy undoubtedly commands the assent of the remaining American Commissioners. I have this to say before I enter upon any analysis of its somewhat confused and complicated terms. From my standpoint there is some good in it, and I sincerely hope that at some stage of the proceed hope that at some stage of the proceed the like of which has never been withings of the Senate I may have an opportunity to express in a definite way my approval not only of the purpose in view. In fifty years the small dare to support aggressive war. More state of Prussia so organized central fully state of Prussia so organized central curve and fairly understand its inevitable consequences it will be rejected in a storm of objoquy present disorganized state of central and eastern Europe that can be done that have been dragged from historic times of the proposed agreement and fairly understand its inevitable consequences it will be rejected in a storm of objoquy present disorganized state of central and eastern Europe that can be done that have been dragged from historic times.

The divine of Bolshevism on the other are full war would never under such a threat bear to support aggressive war. More-state of Prussia so organized central disorganized state of central and eastern Europe that can be done and one to dict that when the citizens of the United States thoroughly grap the meaning of still at work. In fifty years the small dare to support aggressive war. More-state of Prussia so organized central disorganized state of Prussia so organized central disorganized state of Prussia so organized central disorganized state of central and eastern Europe as to defy the world. In the full war would never under such threat would never under such threat the proposed agreement and fairly understand the military downstream of the proposed agreement and fairly understand the pr "The divine right to rule has gone to hell," said Senator Owen. "The doctrine that might makes right is dead. The ternal affairs of member nations, but that every nation should be recognized gration and immigration, its imports and as having complete right over its emi

EGYPTIAN

Let Foe Work Out Own Destiny.

"It is not necessary to abolish na-tional power; it is not necessary that the authority to govern all the people of the world shall be absorbed by one body of men in order to protect the nations which are springing from the lending its very best efforts to perfect ruins of Europe. All that we need to do is to disarm Germany and permit these nations to accomplish their own destinies and achieve the highest victories of civilization."

The conclusion Senator Cumming said:

for conclusion Senator Cummins said:
"I do not ignore the deep anxiety which the Fresident, as the spokesman for this instrument, feels for the laboring people of the world and his keen desire to see that full justice is done to the people—I quote him; Who go to bed tired and wake up without the stimulation of lively hope.

"They understand their wrongs and the posed to correct one by the content of the con they are moving to correct them, some-times in the best way, sometimes in the poorest way. They need no such League of Nations to assert their rights. They have always been strong enough to do it bere, and now they are powerful enough to do it everywhere. Just what will come from the turmoil through which come from the turmoil through which the world is now passing only God knows, but we can fervently hope that of conflicting and irreconcilable aspira-tion will do more to plunge all man-actly to the contrary, saying that our intion will do more to plunge all man-kind into continued strife than any plan that can be conceived.

Our Big Task is at Home.

"The President repeats over and over bility in world work, and I agree with him, I am no advocate of isolation. It seems plain to me, however, that the chief contribution to peace and good order at this time is to meet boldly and to solve wisely for ourselves the one mighty question which is tearing Europe asunder and which is advancing upon us with terrific force.

"If we cannot show the world by our own example that the workingman can Effect on Industrial Situation will happen under it.

"The league is authorized to issue a line thought and free discussion will waken.

"Third—If any nation should refuse to submit a proper controversy to judgment or refuse to perform the judgment of the next and west of Constantino then rendered or refuse to delay war interest that the convenit was not perfect.

This mandate will command the underline the tutelage of the League of Nations. The industrial situation also was referred to in the majority report.

Senator Owen addressed his colleagues threat of the League of Nations. The industrial situation also was referred to in the majority report.

This mandate will command the constantino to provide the true and the conditions he distinct its provided that the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct its and industrial disturbances are immigrated to take passession and administer the total the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct its and industrial disturbances are immigrated to take passession and administer the total the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct its and industrial disturbances are immigrated the tutelage of Nations.

The industrial situation also was referred to in the majority report. "Story and revolution due to the spirit that the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct its disturbances are immigrated to the provide the true and the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct its disturbances are immigrated to the true and the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct and industrial defence, for the Scinator admitted at the outset that the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct an industrial defence, for the Scinator admitted at the outset that the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct an industrial defence, for the Scinator admitted at the outset that the covenant was not perfect. Among other objections he distinct an industrial defence, for the Scinator

Legitimate Investments

Why should you buy worthless stocks from sharpers when you can buy time-tested, standard securities in the legitimate market?

Baby Bonds bring invest-Some of the best yield from

Send for list of Baby Bond

John Muir & Ca Odd Lots 61 Broadway, N.Y.

CRITICS TO REPORT

Custodian Points Out That Employees Were Taken From Merit List.

$700,000,000 NOW HELD BID FOR WESTERN STATES

Frelinghuysen Puts In Resolution Demanding Inquiry of Stewardship.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Congressional investigation of the work of A. Mitchell Paimer, allen property custodian, was proposed in a resolution to-day by Senator Frelinghuysen (New Jersey). Republican. Without discussion the resolution was referred to the Senato Commerce Committee, which, the New Jersey Senator proposed, should conduct the inquiry.

Senator Frelinghuysen's action follows nformal discussions among Republican Senators of alleged political appointments in the allen property custodian's office. Monday the Senate adopted without debate a resolution by Senator Calder (New York) calling upon the custodian for a report on all property taken over by him, on activities and expenditures of his office and for other information. Senator Frelinghuysen recited that the custodian had collected hundreds of millions of dollars and had made no detailed report, "all his transactions having been apparently conducted with complete been apparently conducted with comsecrecy so far as the Senate is aware."

Members of the Commerce Committee expect no action on the resolution before adjournment of Congress.

Members of the Commerce Committee in the committee that the unanimous selection of Mr. Cummings as chairman was pleasing to President Wilson." This adjournment of Congress. foctrine of terrorism is dead. The doctrine of liberty, justice and humanity is triumphant and is writing its magna charta to last for all future time. Let the United States Senate honor itself by expect no action on adjournment of Congress.

Mr. Palmer in a formal statement to-night, said that the resolution of Senator Calder was fully answered in Senator Calder was fully answered in the was successful finally.

The committee created wattom in the way of Senator Calder was Inny authorised to the chis report now ready for submission to the chis report now ready fo was interesting, it indicating, with other parts of the Senator's speech, that he favored changes and amendments in the covenant. That, however, is asserted to be what the Fresident is dead set hgainst; the Fresident demanding, in short, that the covenant go through with-

Names His Employees.

ties in the document the Senator pro-Nothing contained in the instrument itself should be construed as granting any rights to the league over the inporation in which the Alien Property tion Custodian has an interest.

"Reference in a newspaper story relating to a former Congresseman from Brooklyn is evidently aimed at J. J. Fitzgerald," said Mr. Palmer. "He has been for something over a year counsel for the American Metal Company, a paid by that company at the rate of $500 a month, a very small charge for the services he has rendered.

"In three other corporations Mr. Fitzgerald represented the companies as counsel before I took over the enemy interest therein, and I permitted him to remain."

Record.

Washington, Feb. 26.—Illness among the American Expeditionary Forces showed vonsiderable increase in the week ended February 6. The 182 new cases of typhoid fever set a new high rate for this disease.

The total of sick many first total of sick many first for the sick many first for actly to the contrary, saying that our in-terests are now bound up in the welfare and happiness of mankind. Also he was afraid that a submarine might sneak up the Potomac some day and blow the dome off the Capitol, or that it might in-ject by means of a bomb superfluous gas into the Senate Chamber. He closed by rejoicing that the Presi-

Custodian Highest Paid. advising the President to go to Mr. Palmer said the highest paid person in the Alien Property Custodian's office was the Custodian himself, "to whom Congress generously granted a salary 'not to exceed $5,000." Every DRY LEGISLATION REPORTED. employee, he said, had been taken from a list of eligibles furnished by the Civil

PALMER REFERS HIS CUMMINGS ELECTED DEMOCRATIC CHIEF

National Committee's Action Called "Pleasing to President Wilson."

Vice-Chairman From Kansas and Montana Named as Campaign Bait.

Special Despatch to Tan Sun WASHINGTON, Feb. 26.—Homer S. Cummings of Connecticut succeeded to-day officially to the place he has held unofficially at the head of the Demo-cratic National Committee for some time, in fact, ever since Vance C. Motime, in fact, ever since vance C. Mc-Cormick has been on the Federal pay roll as chairman of the War Trade Board. Mr. Cummings was unanimously elected chairman of the Democratic Na-tional Committee in spite of the over-whelming defeat his party sustained under his active leadership on the com-mittee a trifle less than four months ago.

At the meeting of the committee the members also adopted a resolution greeting the President on his return to the United States and congratulating him on his achievements at the Peaca Conference.

The press agent of the committee soon after the meeting gave out a lengthy statement in which this sentence appeared: "Information came to members of the committee that the unanimous Cummings spent the greater part of yes-

President Wilson. He said he wel-comed the fuliest investigation of his instead of one vice-chairman—the of-office. Mr. Cummings held—two were One was J. Brude Kremer of Names His Employees.

In his statement Mr. Palmer said his report contained, as required by law, a list of all persons appointed or employed, with the saiary or compensation paid to each and a statement of the different kinds of property director of finance. Wilbur D. March taken into custody and the disposition. taken into custody and the disposition of Waterloo, Iowa, remains as treasurer made of it.

and Col. John I. Martin sergeant at made of it.

Mr. Palmer said a published statement that "scane New York lawyer has received a fee of $59,000" is absurd. No such fee had been paid by his office, he declared. And none anywhere approaching that sum had been paid by any corning that sum had been paid by any cornection in which the Allen Perserty.

ILLNESS INCREASES IN A. E. F.

8 was 79,069, of whom 59,325 were be-ing treated for disease and the remain-der for injuries. Sick and injured returned from France from the beginning of the war-to February 14 totalled 69,574, of whom 59,456 had been sent home since the armistice was signed.

MAY DELAY OUTPUT REPORT.

B. Altman & Co.

MADISON AVENUE - FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK

Thirty-fourth Street

An Extraordinary Offering of Afternoon & Evening Dresses

at $28.00, 38.00 & 48.00

will take place to-day (Thursday) in the Department for Women's Ready-to-wear Dresses on the Third Floor